St. Andrew Church's "Why" Statement...

To come together as a worshipping community, nourished by God's love so that we may reflect God's love to others. Adopted April 2023

June 11, 2023 2nd Sunday after Pentecost Service of Holy Communion

Though Jesus was a devout Jew who practiced his faith, he was criticized for eating with tax collectors and sinners—the religiously nonobservant. Jesus criticizes the self-righteous and reminds us that mercy is to be at the heart of our religious practices. God continues to be made known in those on the margins of society, like Matthew the tax collector and the hemorrhaging woman. As we gather each Lord's day we receive the healing that makes us well and sends us forth to be signs of God's mercy for the world.

Invitation to Participate in Conversation With Bristol/Plainville Congregations During this Season of Discernment

Dear Bristol area congregations,

In fall of 2022, a number of transitions in the ELCA churches of Bristol and Plainville caused us to enter a time of parallel discernment, giving each congregation an opportunity to assess its own energy, purpose, and hopes for what comes next. The hope was for each individual congregation to discern their path and to identify any opportunities for collaboration and deepening relationships around our shared mission across congregations. Thank you for engaging this challenging work in each of your own contexts.

In consultation with your transition pastors and consultants, we would like to host an evening of conversation with me, Pr. Steven Wilco, Associate to the Bishop, to lift up some of the good discernment work that has taken place in each congregation and talk together about hopes for what comes next individually and together. This conversation is one of information sharing, not one of decision making. We come with no preconceived assumptions about formal or informal partnerships that could emerge in the future but with the recognition that relationship building and open communication across our congregations is always a fruitful endeavor.

You are invited for conversation:

First Congregational Church, UCC 31 Maple St. Bristol, CT

on June 14 at 6:30-8 p.m.

Light refreshments will be provided. We hope that members of the church councils and transition teams will make an effort to attend if possible, but consider the invitation open to anyone from the congregations.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact your transition pastor/coach or reach out to me directly at swilco@nesynod.org.

Peace, Steven
